About the Artists

Sophie Mok, Assistant Conductor
The Lucy Moore Ruffin Chair

In 2024, Sophie Sze-Ki Mok began her tenure as Assistant Conductor of the North Carolina Symphony. She has also served since 2023 as Assistant Conductor of the Asian Youth Orchestra, where she has worked alongside Joseph Bastian and Jader Bignamini. She has assisted esteemed conductors including Marin Alsop, Jonathon Heyward, Thomas Wilkins, and Tan Dun. Upcoming engagements include serving as cover conductor for the Van Cliburn International Piano Competition. Previously, she was a Conducting Fellow with the Miami Symphony Orchestra and Assistant Conductor of the Frost Symphony Orchestra at the University of Miami's Frost School of Music.

Mok was selected to compete in the La Maestra Conducting Competition in 2024 and was one of several finalists to compete in Riccardo Muti's Italian Opera Academy in 2022. In 2019, she won second prize at the International Conductor's Competition held during the Deutsches Musikfest. For six years, she served as the conductor of the Hong Kong Youth Wind Philharmonia, mentoring young musicians from elementary school through college.

Born in Hong Kong, Mok began her musical journey as an oboist. She received her bachelor's degree in oboe performance from Hong Kong Baptist University and later furthered her studies at the University of Colorado at Boulder, where she earned a master's degree. As a conductor, she holds a master's degree in orchestral conducting from the College-Conservatory of Music (CCM), and an Artist Diploma in conducting from the University of Miami Frost School of Music under the tutelage of Gerard Schwarz.

Scott MacLeod, baritone

This is Scott MacLeod's 20th engagement with the North Carolina Symphony. He most recently appeared with the Symphony in 2023, for concerts celebrating Independence Day in Wilmington, Garner, and Cary.

Scott MacLeod maintains an active musical career as a singer, teacher, conductor, and stage director. A resident of North Carolina from 2006-2024, he performed as soloist with North Carolina Opera, Piedmont Opera, Greensboro Opera, Long Leaf Opera, Carolina Performing Arts, Winston-Salem Symphony, Greensboro Symphony Orchestra, Durham Symphony Orchestra, Mallarmé Music, Carolina Ballet, North Carolina Master Chorale, Eastern Music Festival, and numerous recital and concert venues across the state. He served as North Carolina Opera's chorus master for 11 years, including 29 operas and Andrea Bocelli's 2024 Valentine's Day concert in PNC Arena. He was Professor of Music at High Point University from 2010-2024, where he received the 2021 "Innovation and Creativity in Teaching" Award.

Notable international work includes three tours of Messiah with the National Symphony Orchestra of Costa Rica; a performance of original works by J. Mark Scearce at the historic Municipal House in Prague; and a State Department-supported recital tour in Marseille, France, which culminated in a performance in Monaco for Prince Albert II and invited guests (he performed the same concert in the Washington National Gallery Music Series in April 2023). In 2017 he was awarded an honorary faculty post at Shaoguan University (Guangdong, China), where he staged and music directed their first full opera production, Monteverdi's L'Orfeo.

MacLeod is currently Associate Professor of Voice and Lyric Theatre at the University of Illinois.

Named musician chairs are made possible through very meaningful gifts to the Symphony's endowment. As such, these donor families are also members of the Lamar Stringfield Society.

All string players rotate stands on a periodic basis in each section with the exception of titled players: Principals, Associate Principals, and Assistant Principals.

The North Carolina Symphony is a member of the League of American Orchestras and the International Conference of Symphony and Opera Musicians.

The North Carolina Master Chorale is the Resident Chorus of the North Carolina Symphony.

The North Carolina Symphony Foundation gratefully acknowledges the generous gift of the Lupot violin from Arnold and Zena† Lerman.
