About the Artists

Taichi Fukumura, conductor

This concert is the North Carolina Symphony debut for Taichi Fukumura.

Taichi Fukumura is the Music Director of the Illinois Symphony Orchestra and the newly appointed Assistant Conductor of The Cleveland Orchestra. A rising Japanese-American conductor, Fukumura is the Second Prize Winner of The Mahler Competition 2023 and a four-time recipient of the Solti Foundation U.S. Career Assistance Award, 2021-2024.

Recent and upcoming highlights include guest conducting debuts with the Bamberg Symphony, Utah Symphony, Eugene Symphony, Delaware Symphony Orchestra, and Colorado Springs Philharmonic. He also returned to the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra as guest conductor after leading the orchestra in over 110 concerts as Assistant Conductor under Music Director Robert Spano.

Other notable appearances include guest conducting members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra in their Community Chamber Concert series, leading Stravinsky's L'Histoire du soldat. Fukumura was invited by the Berlin Philharmonic as one of 10 assistant conductor candidates for Kirill Petrenko and the Siemens Conductors Scholarship in 2021. He also served as Assistant Conductor of the Chicago Sinfonietta where he previously received mentorship from Music Director Mei-Ann Chen as a Freeman Conducting Fellow.

Engagements as cover conductor include the Minnesota Orchestra, Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, Houston Symphony, San Diego Symphony, Chicago Philharmonic Orchestra, a return to the Aspen Music Festival as guest assistant conductor, and assisting Barbara Hannigan at the Munich Philharmonic and the Musikkollegium Winterthur, Switzerland.

Born in Tokyo, Fukumura grew up in Boston and began music studies at age three on the violin. He holds a bachelor's degree in violin performance from Boston University, where he studied with Peter Zazofsky, and both master's and doctoral degrees in orchestral conducting from Northwestern University under the mentorship of Victor Yampolsky. Additional conducting training includes the Aspen Music Festival and Pierre Monteux School and Festival.

Nathan Meltzer, violin

This concert is the North Carolina Symphony debut for Nathan Meltzer.

Winner of the 2023 Concert Artist Guild Competition, major prize winner at the 2022 Sibelius and Singapore International Violin Competitions, recipient of the Salon de Virtuosi Career Grant, and youngest ever to win the Windsor Festival Competition, violinist Nathan Meltzer has performed as a soloist with major orchestras around the world. He has performed with the Orchestre national d'Île-de-France, Philharmonia Orchestra, Royal Northern Sinfonia, Finnish Radio Symphony Orchestra, Helsinki Philharmonic Orchestra, Medellín Philharmonic Orchestra, and the Aalborg, Charlotte, Universidad de Concepción, Indianapolis, Montréal, and Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestras, among others, performing across Europe and North and South America.

As a recitalist and chamber musician, Meltzer has performed at series including the Chamber Music Society of Palm Beach, the Dresden Music Festival, the Heidelberger Frühling, Jupiter Symphony Chamber Players, Kallos Chamber Music Series, Parlance Chamber Concerts, Midori's Partners in Performance, and the Terezin Music Foundation, and at festivals including ChamberFest Cleveland, IMS Prussia Cove, Krzyżowa-Music, Montreal Chamber Music Festival, Moritzburg Chamber Music Festival, Music@Menlo's International Program, the Ravinia Steans Music Institute, the Perlman Music Program, and Verbier Festival Academy.

He is also the co-founder and Artistic Director of The Green Room Ensemble, a non-profit chamber music organization dedicated to new music and historically unexplored works by composers from a variety of backgrounds and heritages.

A graduate of The Juilliard School and student of Li Lin and Itzhak Perlman, Meltzer plays on a Storioni violin on generous loan from the Rin Collection.

Named musician chairs are made possible through very meaningful gifts to the Symphony's endowment. As such, these donor families are also members of the Lamar Stringfield Society.

All string players rotate stands on a periodic basis in each section with the exception of titled players: Principals, Associate Principals, and Assistant Principals.

The North Carolina Symphony is a member of the League of American Orchestras and the International Conference of Symphony and Opera Musicians.

The North Carolina Master Chorale is the Resident Chorus of the North Carolina Symphony.

The North Carolina Symphony Foundation gratefully acknowledges the generous gift of the Lupot violin from Arnold and Zena† Lerman.
