

NORTH CAROLINA SYMPHONY

2026/27 Education Concert Program

|                                                                                                               |                                                                |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|
| Quinn Mason(b. 1996)Introduction                                                        | "Inspiration! Festive Overture"                                |
| Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart(1756-1791)Dynamics                                              | Overture to The Impresario , K. 486                     |
| Johann Strauss, Jr.(1825-1899)Tempo                                                     | "On the Beautiful Blue Danube," Waltzes, Op. 314               |
| Julius Fučík(1872-1916)Rhythm                                                           | "Entrance of the Gladiators: Triumphal March," Op. 68          |
| Scott Joplin(1868-1917)Form                                                             | "Maple Leaf Rag"                                               |
| Linda Robbins Coleman(b. 1954)Texture                                                   | "For a Beautiful Land: A Symphonic Poem"                       |
| Phillip T. Fisher/Leonora Monteiro Martin /Arr. Terry Mizesko(b. 1946)Melody | "The Longleaf Pine: An Anthem for the State of North Carolina" |
| Manuel de Falla(1876-1946)Finale                                                        | "Ritual Fire Dance" from El Amor Brujo Concert Suite    |